Issue 31

Published Friday 14th June 2019

Unfortunately, as much as we wished and hoped for good weather this week for our sports days, the weather let us down on some occasions this week.

Please see below for the rescheduled dates of the events which were cancelled. However, the year groups who did manage to go ahead with their sporting events had great fun and showed great resilience, friendships, and demonstrated their sporting prowess.

Updating Your Information

Please may we ask that if you have changed address or have a new mobile/home/work phone number that you update this with us. It is important that we have this to be able to contact you in an emergency.

You can phone the school office or submit an 'update contact details form' on our school

Battery Collection—Update

Mr Rumley is pleased to share with you that the current total of batteries collected by the school so far is.....

9,312!

This is amazing recycling, and by continuing this we should be able to push over the 10,000 mark in no time! You can bring in your battery boxes to the school office and recycle them there.

Tempest Photos

The Year 6 tempest photos have now been delivered to school and have been sent home with your child this week. Keep a look out for these in their bags!

The Foundation Stage photos will be delivered within the next week.

May Bank Holiday 2020

In case you have missed it, in the news this week it has been confirmed that the first May Bank Holiday next year is now Friday 8th May 2020 and NOT Monday 4th May 2020. This is to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of VE Day. Our website and term dates have been updated to reflect this.

Lost Property

We currently have an extremely large amount of lost property at the office, due to items not being named. If items of clothing (School uniform, cardigans, jumpers, coats, etc.) are named, we can return these to your child. If you have lost something please check at the office over the next week, before these will be taken away for donations.

KS1

FK	Sophia is our learner of the week for great sportsmanship, making great relationships this week. Well done!	FP	Alfie is FP's learner of the week for being more confident and resilient in class.	FJ	Ciara is our learner of the week for her great risk-taking in all of her work this week. Keep it up!
1E	Ocean is our learner of the week for her great risk-taking attitude towards all aspects of her work.	1D	Jacob is our learner of the week for relationships. Jacob shared his materials when boat making and was a good team leader.	1T	Tyler is our learner of the week for being a Super Scientist this week. You were resilient when creating your boat. Well done!
2AS	Leon has been showing a fantastic improvement in his learning by using ALL of the 5R's! Well done!	2R	Ebony is our learner of the week for using her 5R's all week and growing in confidence in Maths. Keep it up!	2LS	Jaiden has reflected on his learning during Literacy this week to produce a great character description from Toy Story. Well done!

Learners of the Week

KS2

3N	Logan is our learner of the week for being extremely reflective with his writing. He has responded well to feedback and as a result of this, has created a brilliant piece, which he shared with pupils in Year 5. Well done!	3R	Kayden is our learner of the week for always being resilient, taking risks and great mathematical explanation. Well done!	3B	Isobel is our learner of the week for a fantastic piece of writing. She has a very funny writing style and I would buy her books if she published them now! Well done, Isobel!
4H	Jaxon is our learner of the week for being so attentive during all of his lessons and for trying the best in everything he does. Well done Jaxon!	4R	Jenson is our learner of the week for coming back after half term with a fantastic attitude to his learning. He has been resilient and taken risks all week. I hope he can keep it up for the rest of the year.	4S	Abbie is our learner of the week for always using all 5R's in all aspects of her learning. This week she has truly used her resilience and confidence in her relationships. Well done, Abbie.
5M	Tiobe hasn't been in school very long but has quickly settled into the Layton way. Well done, Tiobe!	5S	Ava is our learner of the week for taking risks with her writing, experimenting her sentence structure and vocabulary. Her resilience to improve her writing is a model for others in the classroom to follow.	5F	Joel is our learner of the week for being an excellent role model for his peers, and always trying his best.
6D	Destiny is our learner of the week. It was amazing to see Destiny's personality flourish while on residential. She encouraged all her team mates and did everything despite some uncertainty. We are so proud of you!	6G	Jennifer is our learner of the week. At the residential, she has really pushed herself beyond her limits, taking some big risks and developing new relationships along the way. It was lovely to watch!	6K	Tyler is our learner of the week. He has been helping out in Foundation and Miss Johnson and Miss Fairclough have had nothing but positive praise for him, Tyler has taken on the role of the teacher this week and Foundation have requested that he come back. Well done Tyler, we are all super proud of you!
